

Oregon Adaptive Sports 2018/19 Mt Bachelor Locals Ski Program

Adaptive Ski and Snowboard lessons for Central Oregon residents offered at discounted rates on specific dates throughout the season at Mt Bachelor. The goal of this program is to increase consistency and accessibility of skiing to Central Oregon residents with disabilities.

Program Guidelines:

- This program is for “lessons” only, ski buddies should book through our regular booking process.
- Participants must pick the same day each week for consistency with OAS coaches.
- Program is available January 3rd - March 22nd
- Program is unavailable during the Blackout Dates listed below.
- Greatest availability is Monday, Wednesday or Sunday.
- Registration for this program closes December 15th.
- Lessons are available for locals outside of this program, but participants will be asked to pay list rate or apply for a scholarship.

Cost:

Lessons: $85/full day; $65/half day (includes lift pass, all equipment, and instructor).

Scholarships:

Scholarships are available to further discount rates for participants that qualify. Scholarship applications are available on the OAS website or by emailing info@oregonadaptivesports.org

Blackout Dates:

The OAS Locals program IS NOT available the following dates, due to historical high demand in lessons from out of town skiers or other commitments. Locals can request experiences on these dates at the regular list-rate pricing for OAS lessons/buddies.

January 19th-21st (Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday Weekend)

January 25th-27th (OAS’ Annual Heroes in Sisters Weekend)

February 2nd (Hoodoo Inclusive Ski Day)

February 16th-18th (President’s Day Weekend)

March 8th – 9th (OAS participating in Ski to Defeat ALS @ Mt Hood Meadows)

March 16th (OAS Ski for All 2.0 – sign up to participant in Ski For All)

To sign up or questions:

Call or email OAS at 541-306-4774 or info@oregonadaptivesports.org, we will set up each Local’s calendar individually.
