

Week 1 Scavenger Hunt: Downtown/Westside

1. In this plaza was once a shop named for a crow, when summer arrives it's where farm stands all go.
2. This concrete park structure sits right along the Deschutes river, and the artists who perform here always deliver.
3. This large stone furry creature has been wearing his mask, to greet all the shoppers for whom groceries are the task.
4. A hidden gem on the Bend Westside, to this park is a fun place to ride. Tucked between houses and ponderosa trees, this winter sled spot is named for when the sun leaves.
5. This little section of river brought the surf life to Bend, a spot so popular that the line never seems to end.

6. This statue of boats is a memorable mark, at the entrance where all the river tubers must park.
